

FSMB's Disclosure Policy

The Federation of State Medical Boards (FSMB) requires all instructors, planners, reviewers, managers, and other individuals in a position to control or influence the content of an activity to disclose all relevant financial relationships or affiliations. All identified conflicts of interest must be resolved prior to the activity. Individuals who indicate the existence of such relationships or potential or actual conflict of interest will be asked to agree in writing that the conflicts or relationships will not bias or otherwise influence their involvement in the CME activity. Faculty/authors are asked to keep presentations balanced, objective, scientifically rigorous, and free of commercial bias, and requires faculty/authors to disclose when off-label/unapproved uses of products are discussed in the CME activity or included in related materials.
