

JOURNAL of MEDICAL REGULATION

Journal of Medical Regulation

Editor-in-Chief Responsibilities

Title	Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Medical Regulation (JMR)
Position Objective	Serve as the public voice and figurehead of JMR , examining interdisciplinary trends and topics of interest to the international community of medical regulators who protect the public's health and safety through the licensing and disciplining of physicians and other health care professionals.
Commitment	Part time (approximately 20-25 hours per month), 5-year term, subject to renewal by mutual agreement.
Location	Remote
Reporting	Chair, Journal Oversight Committee; access to Board of Directors
Remuneration	Independent contractor paid competitive stipend
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Terminal degree required (e.g.: MD, PhD, DO, JD)• Not a current FSMB officer or editor of another journal• Record of scholarly achievement

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Editorial experience, preferably as a journal editor• Ability to meet deadlines, well organized, responsive to feedback• Excellent interpersonal and communication skills• Working familiarity with open access publishing a plus• Some travel, e.g., publications meetings, professional conferences
Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Devise and implement JMR editorial plan, i.e., mission, scope, article types, and specs agreed w/ JOC• Identify and recruit qualified experts for, editorial board & review panel• Oversee review process, monitor metrics, e.g., rejection rate, Impact Factor• Remain apprised of developments in field of medical regulation• Uphold and enhance educational mission, editorial quality, and reputation for meaningful scholarship• Invite colleagues of high scientific standing to contribute to the journal• Serve as JMR ambassador• Implement and/or review appropriate policies, e.g., ethics, COI, etc.• Implement and/or review appropriate policies, e.g., ethics, COI, etc.